New Tax Law and 2020 Charitable Giving

The CARES Act could influence your charitable giving decisions in 2020.

The new CARES (Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security) Act is designed to help you, businesses and nonprofits facing economic hardship during the coronavirus pandemic.

Here are a few key provisions of the CARES Act that may affect you and your charitable goals:

New Tax Incentives

The CARES Act allows taxpayers to take a charitable deduction of up to $300 for those who take the standard deduction. You might think that this is a small amount and would not make a difference. But what if all of our donors gave “just” $300? Such support would have a huge impact on those we serve.

For those who do itemize their deductions, the new law allows for cash contributions to qualified charities such as Dixie State University to be deducted up to 100% of your adjusted gross income for the 2020 calendar year.

Required Minimum Distributions Suspended

The new law temporarily suspends the requirements for required minimum distributions (RMDs) for the 2020 tax year. This probably comes as a relief to many of you who would have had to withdraw from your retirement accounts. Many of our donors use their RMD to make a gift from their IRA. Despite the RMD suspension, remember that if you are 70½ or older, you can still make a gift from your IRA or name Dixie State University as a beneficiary.

Why a Gift From Your IRA May Still Be a Good Idea

- Your gift will be put to use today, allowing you to see the difference your donation is making.
- You pay no income taxes on the gift. The transfer generates neither taxable income nor a tax deduction, so you benefit even if you do not itemize your deductions.
- Since the gift doesn’t count as income, it can reduce your annual income level. This may help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax.

Your Charitable Goals

We are deeply grateful for your continued kindness and support during this difficult time. Please contact DSU Advancement at advancement@dixie.edu or 435-652-7919 to discuss how your gift can help further our mission.
